

Lotus Garden Yoga

“See the World Differently”

This upside-down chair, perched on a trellis, invites you to see the world from a new perspective.

It comes with a yoga mat for grounding and reflection, while the trellis offers space to grow something climbing—both in your garden and in your mindset.

Friends of the Senior Center

"Love and Kindness"

Joanne Curcio, President of the Friends of the New Fairfield Senior Center, fashioned this chair to reflect the general feeling that she has perceived at the Senior Center. Inspired by the beautiful images, the new owner will certainly want to spread that feeling in the community.

A work of art for any spot in the home.

New Fairfield Senior Center

“Falls in Love”

Artist Dominick Tomanelli transformed this chair into a stunning visual tribute to nature. Inspired by the beauty of the local landscape, the design captures the serene flow of Ball Pond Brook as it winds through waterfalls on the Senior Center grounds and, eventually, into Candlewood Lake.

This unique piece blends art with function—perfect for any outdoor setting, or to bring a touch of natural beauty indoors.

Gil's Auto and Truck Repair

"The Wheels Go On"

When it comes to reliable auto repair and emergency attention, Gil and Tommy and their crew have been the go-to team for more than four decades. They're not ones to brag—so Marty Gucker decided to do it for them!

To honor their dedication and craft, Marty built a one-of-a-kind tribute: a custom chair-vehicle hybrid that's equal parts towed trike and relaxation station. Perfect if you need a "lift" and a moment to sit back and appreciate great service.

New Fairfield Dental

“Don’t Fear the Chair”

Because New Fairfield Dental is a family practice, they invited their daughter Liv Quinby—along with a little help from Granddad—to transform this doll chair into something truly special. Its small size is a playful reminder that there’s nothing to fear in the dentist’s chair.

A charming addition to any child’s playroom!

Preserve New Fairfield

“America the Beautiful”

The dedicated volunteers of Preserve New Fairfield recognized the importance of saving two mid-19th century homes—dating back to around 1838 and 1840—from demolition. Their mission: to illustrate and preserve the unique history of our town. They celebrate this legacy by giving their chair a proud, historical flag-inspired design.

Tom Ciccarone

“Come Sit with Me”

Our delightful auctioneer is also a creative writer, which helped him imagine the possibilities hidden in two broken-down chairs and a simple tree slab.

The bright red and yellow design, along with whimsical animal figures holding the chair backs, brings a sense of care-free fun and playful charm to this unique children's set.

FiSh of New Fairfield

“Water, please”

FiSH (Friends in Service Here) is a network of dedicated volunteers providing non-emergency transportation for New Fairfield residents who are unable to drive themselves.

Through their work, they’ve come to appreciate how important pets are to many of their riders. Inspired by this connection, they’ve creatively adapted a chair into a low watering hole for pets — making it accessible and practical.

Bright colors and playful images add a fun, cheerful touch, making it a delightful addition for any pet owner.

New Fairfield Veterans Association

“Strength, courage, freedom, and wisdom ”

The New Fairfield Veterans Association is dedicated to supporting the veterans of our community. They welcome veterans of all wars on the first Wednesday of each month at 7:00 PM at the Senior Center.

In honor of these brave men and women, this rustic rocking chair features a tribute to our nation’s symbol of freedom. You may want to bid on this chair for a veteran that you care for as a meaningful gesture of appreciation.

It can be enjoyed in its current handcrafted form or personalized with your own finishing touches.

Carol Cario

“Beautiful New Fairfield ”

Longtime resident Carol Cario has mastered the art of Tole painting, adorning tin and wooden utensils, decorative objects, and furniture with her vibrant designs for many years. Her work adds a unique charm to the décor of homes throughout New Fairfield.

This particular chair is a special piece—it reflects Carol's deep love for New Fairfield and holds sentimental value, as her husband, Sonny Cario, practiced his craft of jewelry making while seated in it.
