

The Hills are Alive

Maple, Mountains, and Von Trapp

June 16-18, 2026, Vermont

Discover America in our 250th year!

Join Kay for a journey to Vermont—where history, nature, and sweet indulgence come together! Explore the serene hills where the Von Trapp Family settled after their escape from Austria, surrounded by vibrant maple forests, a crystal-clear lake, and the irresistible charm of Ben & Jerry's ice cream. It's a trip filled with breathtaking views, fascinating stories, and delicious moments you won't want to miss!

The Spirit of Ethan Allen cruise offers a vibrant and scenic experience. This 90-minute narrated cruise blends breathtaking views of the lake and surrounding mountains with engaging stories about local history.

Church Street Marketplace is a four-block pedestrian area in the center of Burlington, Vermont. Lined with quaint shops, cafes, and restaurants, it is a perfect destination to soak in local culture.

Morse Farm Maple Sugarworks offers a delightful and authentic glimpse into the heart of Vermont's maple syrup tradition. And a tasty treat!

The Gondola SkyRide to the summit in Stowe offers unparalleled views of the Green Mountains and valley below.

Ben and Jerry's factory tour takes visitors behind the scenes of one of America's most beloved ice cream brands.

Von Trapp Family Lodge History Tour. This experience gives you insight into the truths and imagined story lines in The Sound of Music and gives you an in-depth look at how the von Trapps ended up here in beautiful Stowe.

Dinner in the Main Dining Room at the Trapp Family Lodge is a refined and memorable experience that blends Austrian tradition with Vermont charm.

The Shelburne Museum is a rich and immersive journey through American art, history, and culture, set on a stunning 45-acre campus.
